Estudillo Mansion

City of San Jacinto

- Listed in the National Register of Historic Places
- The mansion is significant for its association with Francisco Estudillo, who inherited extensive land holdings that his family had acquired through a Mexican land grant which contained much of what is now the San Jacinto Valley and beyond. Francisco Estudillo was one of the leading land developers in the area and served at many levels of local government, thereby influencing the growth and development of the area. The Estudillo Mansion was constructed for Francisco and his family in 1885. The period of significance for the Estudillo Mansion dates from 1885 to 1901, the years that Francisco resided on the property.
